

INFOSYS UK ? SOCIAL VALUE KNOWLEDGE BRIEF
YOUTH EMPLOYMENT & SKILLS PATHWAYS (BIRMINGHAM)
[Classification: Synthetic Test Evidence ? POC Use Only]

1. Overview & Objective

Youth unemployment in the West Midlands Combined Authority remains significantly above the national average. Infosys commits to delivering high-impact youth employment pathways targeted specifically at 16-24 year olds not in education, employment, or training (NEET).

2. Core Programme: Youth Tech Mentoring & Career Launch

? Initiative Name: Youth Employment & Mentoring Pathways

? Theme: Youth Employment

? Target Geography: Birmingham, Solihull, and Black Country

? Annual Volume: 3 young people supported into sustained employment/training per contract year

? Total 3-Year Volume: 9 young people

? National TOMs Proxy Metric: NT3 (Young People Supported into Employment: 16-24 NEET)

? Unit Proxy Value: £4,850.00 per individual

? 3-Year Social Value Impact: $9 \times £4,850 = £43,650.00$

3. Delivery Structure & Curriculum

Each participant undertakes:

- 4 weeks of structured digital work experience at Infosys Birmingham facilities
- 1-on-1 career mentoring with an Infosys Senior Consultant (12 sessions)
- Hands-on training in Python, Cloud Fundamentals, and Agile Delivery
- CV preparation, mock interviews, and guaranteed interview for Infosys entry-level roles

4. Delivery Partners

Partnering with St Basils (West Midlands youth charity supporting young people at risk of homelessness) and Birmingham Metropolitan College (BMet). (Synthetic partnership example for POC demonstration).

5. Apprenticeship Expansion Option (Enhanced Package)

Where the contract scale permits, Infosys can scale the engagement to include full-time apprenticeships:

? Metric: NT1 (Local Apprenticeship Weeks)

? Unit Value: £215.00 / week

? 52 weeks/year = £11,180.00 annual proxy value (£33,540.00 over 3 years)

6. Traceability and Audit

All evidence logs participant attendance, verified National Insurance onboarding numbers, and partner referral documentation to satisfy public sector audit requirements.